

Counsellor interested in working within a Bio-Psychosocial-Spiritual framework required to provide services for clients suffering from Trauma & Abuse

- This is an opportunity to work with a dedicated and experienced team operating to the north of Brisbane in the greater Moreton region.
- Our primary focus is based on the principles of social justice, and by the delivery of holistic professional services.
- Our approach is both evidenced based and trauma informed
- Sessional and flexible hours are available. Immediate start.
- Clientele are generated from many reliable sources and goodwill generated over 24 years of providing a high-quality service to the community and region.
- Appropriate remuneration is available with negotiable contract and terms.
- Our lovely fully furnished rooms are set in a bushland garden setting with community gardens, meal bank kitchen and Men's Chat shed programme.
- Administrative support, team activities and professional development with multiple resources are available on site.

DESIRABLE QUALITIES & AREAS OF PRACTISE

- Interest in working with Men
- A Trauma informed approach
- A person-centred approach
- A desire to practice holistically
- A preference to work from a trauma informed recovery focussed model.
- Interest in expanding your range of therapeutic approaches.
- Flexibility in thinking, a positive professional attitude
- Ability to work collaboratively within a team.
- An ability to relate well, be self-motivated and provide a high level of care.
- Location in the North Brisbane, Pine Rivers, Moreton, and adjacent Sunshine Coast hinterland regions.
- Understanding and familiarity with the Judeo-Christian world view.

ESSENTIAL REQUIREMENTS

- Graduate qualifications in Counselling
- Demonstrated suitable life experience with people and passion for Social Justice
- Willingness to train in EMDR Therapy.

This is an opportunity for recent graduates to enter practise, or for more experienced practitioners to expand their practise range and contribute to the community.

Please address your enquiries with CV including referees by email to:
Coral Palmer, The Director,
Gnadenfrei Counselling and Psychology coraljpalmer@gmail.com